

Share your cancer story. It can save lives.

Share your cancer story. It can save lives.

My name is Cynthia. I lost my father, Daryl, to cancer at the age of 61. He was diagnosed with stage 4 colorectal cancer. He didn't want to get screened, but the cancer might have been prevented if he did. Don't let your family lose you too.

My father didn't get a chance to beat cancer, but you can still beat it!

Testing saves lives, but only if people get tested. There are affordable screening options – talk to your doctor about which colorectal cancer screening test is right for you.

Learn more about colorectal cancer and screening options at www.cancer.org.
Talk to your doctor today!

This publication is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $425,000 with 100 percent funded by CDC/HHS. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, CDC/HHS, or the U.S. Government.

My name is Cynthia. I lost my father, Daryl, to cancer at the age of 61. He was diagnosed with stage 4 colorectal cancer. He didn't want to get screened, but the cancer might have been prevented if he did. Don't let your family lose you too.

My father didn't get a chance to beat cancer, but you can still beat it!

Testing saves lives, but only if people get tested. There are affordable screening options – talk to your doctor about which colorectal cancer screening test is right for you.

Learn more about colorectal cancer and screening options at www.cancer.org.
Talk to your doctor today!

This publication is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $425,000 with 100 percent funded by CDC/HHS. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, CDC/HHS, or the U.S. Government.